

RESOLUTION

To Change the Motto of the Idaho Vehicle License Plate

KC-1416-031

Preamble

Whereas, The state of Idaho is famous for potatoes;

Whereas, Agriculture has been a mainstay of the Idaho economy;

Whereas, Idaho has matured beyond an agricultural economy and has developed an even stronger economy based on mining, technology, logging, manufacturing, and additional resources;

Whereas, Idaho's vehicle license plates continue to tout the legendary potato industry;

Whereas, It is time to recognize the fact that Idaho is known as a state that values religious faith, family and freedom as much, if not more, than its potatoes; therefore

Main Motion

Resolved, That the Kootenai County Republican Central Committee requests the state of Idaho to change the motto on our vehicle license plates from "Famous Potatoes" to "Faith, Family and Freedom."

Adopted March 22, 2016
